Big Enough for Your Suppressed Rifle

The 58" Precision Rifle Case is perfect for suppressed precision rifles. No more unscrewing your suppressor to case your rifle and no more leaving the butt of the rifle hanging out an open zipper that can't be closed! At 58" in length, the Precision Rifle Case will accept most bolt-action precision rifles with a suppressor attached. This rugged case features the same 1/2" foam padding as the high-end cases we provide to the US Military. With a huge side pocket, you can take your spotting scope, rangefinder, mags, and ammo or whatever you need for a day at the range. Front zippered pocket is perfect for storing a copy of your Form 4 or other docs for your suppressor, batteries, and other smaller items.
