Safety Instruction Guide for the EXTREME SCOPED RIFLE CASE

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Bulldog® Extreme Scoped Rifle Case. This guide provides important safety information and instructions to ensure the safe use and maintenance of your rifle case. Please read this guide carefully before using the product.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the rifle case is used only for its intended purpose, which is to store and transport scoped and nonscoped rifles.
- Regularly inspect the case for any signs of wear or damage. Do not use the case if it is compromised in any way.
- Keep the rifle case out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals to prevent accidents.
- Familiarize yourself with the local laws and regulations regarding firearm storage and transportation.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Always ensure that your rifle is unloaded before placing it in the case.
- Use the removable, adjustable shoulder strap properly to avoid dropping the case while in transit.
- Do not overload the accessory pocket with heavy items, as this may affect the balance and handling of the case.
- Avoid exposing the case to extreme temperatures or direct sunlight for extended periods, as this may damage the materials.
- If the case becomes wet, allow it to dry completely before storing your rifle.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Preparing the Case:

- Open the fulllength zipper and fully extend the case.
- Ensure that the inner lining is clean and free from debris.

2. Placing the Rifle in the Case:

- Carefully place your unloaded rifle into the case, ensuring that the scope is positioned correctly.
- Use the padding to secure the rifle and prevent movement during transport.

3. Securing the Case:

- Close the zipper completely to ensure that the case is securely shut.
- Adjust the shoulder strap to a comfortable length for carrying.

4. Using the Accessory Pocket:

- Store small accessories in the zippered accessory pocket.
- Ensure that the pocket is closed securely to prevent items from falling out.

5. Transporting the Case:

- Carry the case using the shoulder strap or by the handles, ensuring a firm grip.
- Avoid swinging or tossing the case to prevent damage to the contents.

Disposal Instructions

- When disposing of the rifle case, check local regulations for proper disposal methods.
- If the case is damaged beyond repair, consider recycling the materials where possible.
- Do not incinerate the case, as it may release harmful substances.

Contact Information for Further Support

For safety inquiries or to report unsafe products, please refer to the EU Safety Gate platform for the most current information. Ensure that you have the product information available for any communications.

Thank you for your attention to these safety guidelines. By following these instructions, you can help ensure a safe and enjoyable experience with your Bulldog® Extreme Scoped Rifle Case.
