Safety Instruction Guide for Bulldog® Extreme Scoped Rifle Case

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Bulldog® Extreme Scoped Rifle Case. This guide provides essential safety information and instructions to ensure the safe use and maintenance of your rifle case. Please read this guide thoroughly before use to understand the safety precautions and proper handling of the product.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the case is used only for its intended purpose: transporting scoped and nonscoped rifles.
- Always check the case for any damage before use. Do not use if damaged.
- Keep the case out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals to prevent accidents.
- Regularly inspect all components, including zippers and straps, to ensure they are functioning correctly.
- Store the case in a cool, dry place away from direct sunlight to prevent material degradation.
- If you encounter any issues or have concerns regarding the safety of the product, report them to the appropriate authorities.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Always ensure that your rifle is unloaded before placing it in the case.
- Use the removable, adjustable shoulder strap with care to avoid dropping or mishandling the case.
- Be cautious when using the fulllength zipper; avoid pinching fingers or catching fabric.
- Do not overload the accessory pocket to maintain balance and prevent damage.
- When carrying the case, ensure it is secured and held firmly to avoid accidental drops.
- Do not expose the case to harsh chemicals or extreme temperatures, as this may damage the materials.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Preparation:

- Ensure the rifle is unloaded and any accessories are removed.
- Open the case by unzipping the fulllength zipper completely.

2. Placing the Rifle:

- Carefully place the scoped or nonscoped rifle into the case, ensuring it is positioned securely.
- If applicable, use the soft, fur inner lining to provide additional cushioning.

3. Securing the Rifle:

- Close the zipper gently, ensuring that the zipper does not catch on any part of the rifle or case.
- Check that the rifle is secure within the case before handling or transporting.

4. Using the Shoulder Strap:

- Adjust the removable shoulder strap to a comfortable length.
- Ensure that the metal swivels are securely attached and functioning properly before use.

5. Transporting the Case:

- Carry the case using the shoulder strap or handle, ensuring it is balanced and secure.
- Avoid swinging or dropping the case during transport.

Disposal Instructions

- When disposing of the rifle case, follow local regulations regarding the disposal of textile and plastic materials.
- Consider recycling the materials if possible, or check with local waste management for proper disposal methods.
- Ensure that the case is empty and free of any contents before disposal.

Contact Information for Further Support

For additional support or inquiries regarding safety concerns, please refer to the manufacturer's contact information provided with your purchase. Always keep the purchase receipt and warranty details for reference.

By following these safety instructions and guidelines, you can ensure a safe and enjoyable experience with your Bulldog® Extreme Scoped Rifle Case. Thank you for your attention to safety, and enjoy your product responsibly.
