Safety Instruction Guide for Bob Allen Canvas Shotgun Case

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Bob Allen Canvas Shotgun Case. This guide provides essential safety instructions and guidelines to ensure the safe use and maintenance of your shotgun case. Please read this document carefully to understand how to use the product safely and effectively.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the shotgun case is used only for its intended purpose: protecting and transporting your shotgun.
- Regularly inspect the case for any signs of wear or damage. Do not use the case if it is compromised.
- Keep the shotgun case out of reach of children and pets to avoid accidents.
- Always store the shotgun case in a dry place to prevent mold and deterioration of materials.
- Follow all local laws and regulations regarding the transportation of firearms.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- When carrying the shotgun case, ensure that the firearm is unloaded and secured inside the case.
- Use the leather sling for overtheshoulder or hand carry. Make sure it is properly adjusted to avoid slipping.
- Be cautious when using the zipper. Avoid pinching fingers or other items in the zipper track.
- Do not overload the accessory pocket; it is designed for light items only.
- Always check that the case is securely closed before transportation.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Placing the Firearm in the Case

- Unzip the case completely.
- Carefully place the unloaded shotgun inside the case, ensuring that it is positioned securely.
- Close the case and ensure that the zipper is fully engaged.

2. Carrying the Case

- Use the leather sling for carrying the case over your shoulder or by hand.
- Adjust the sling length for comfort and security.

3. Storing the Case

- Store the case in a cool, dry place away from direct sunlight.
- Ensure that the case is not exposed to extreme temperatures or moisture.

Disposal Instructions

- When the shotgun case reaches the end of its life cycle, dispose of it responsibly.
- Check local regulations for disposal of textile and leather materials.
- Consider recycling the materials if possible, or donate the case if it is still in usable condition.
