Safety Instruction Guide for the TEAM SERIES DIVIDED SHELL POUCH WITH BELT

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Bob Allen Team Series Divided Shell Pouch with Belt. This product is designed to securely hold shotgun shell boxes while providing comfort and convenience during use. To ensure your safety and the longevity of the product, please read and follow these safety instructions carefully.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always inspect the pouch and belt before each use for any signs of wear, damage, or malfunction.
- Do not overload the pouch beyond its intended capacity as this may compromise its integrity and safety.
- Keep the pouch away from sharp objects, heat sources, and extreme weather conditions to prevent damage.
- Store the pouch in a cool, dry place when not in use.
- Follow all local laws and regulations related to the transport and use of shotgun shells.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Ensure that the pouch is securely fastened to the belt before use to avoid accidental detachment.
- When removing or inserting shotgun shell boxes, do so carefully to prevent spills or accidents.
- Do not allow children to use or handle the pouch without adult supervision.
- Be aware of your surroundings when using the pouch, especially in crowded or outdoor environments.
- If you notice any damage or malfunction during use, discontinue use immediately and seek assistance.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Adjusting the Belt:

- To adjust the belt length, locate the belt buckle and pull the webbing to achieve the desired length between 26" and 50".
- Ensure that the belt fits snugly around your waist without being overly tight.

2. Using the Pouch:

- Open the compartments of the divided shell pouch by unfastening any closures.
- Place one shotgun shell box in each compartment, ensuring that they fit securely.
- Close the compartments to prevent the shell boxes from falling out during use.

3. Wearing the Pouch:

- Slip the belt over your waist and fasten it securely.
- Adjust the position of the pouch for comfort and accessibility while maintaining a secure fit.

4. Removing the Pouch:

- To remove the pouch, unfasten the belt buckle and gently slide the pouch off your waist.

Disposal Instructions

- When the pouch reaches the end of its life cycle or is no longer usable, dispose of it in accordance with local waste disposal regulations.

- If the pouch is made from materials that can be recycled, please recycle them where facilities exist.
