Safety Instruction Guide for the GBRS Group Double Rifle Magazine Pouch with Bungee Retention

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the GBRS Group Double Rifle Magazine Pouch with Bungee Retention. This versatile and durable product is designed to securely hold your rifle magazines while ensuring ease of access during use. This guide provides essential safety instructions to help you use the pouch safely and effectively, in accordance with the EU General Product Safety Regulation (GPSR).

General Safety Guidelines

- Always inspect the pouch for any signs of damage or wear before each use.
- Ensure that the pouch is compatible with your specific rifle magazines.
- Follow all manufacturer recommendations for safe use and maintenance.
- Keep the pouch out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals.
- Report any unsafe conditions or incidents to the appropriate authorities.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Avoid overloading the pouch with more magazines than it is designed to hold.
- Ensure that the bungee retention system is properly secured when in use.
- Do not use the pouch if any components are damaged or missing.
- When drawing or reholstering magazines, do so in a controlled manner to prevent accidents.
- Be aware of your surroundings when using the pouch to avoid collisions or injuries.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation

- Attach the pouch to your belt or MOLLE system using the provided straps.
- Ensure that the pouch is securely fastened and does not move during use.
- Adjust the bungee retention system according to your preference for optimal fit and security.

2. Usage

- To insert a magazine, open the pouch and place the magazine inside, ensuring it is positioned securely.
- To draw a magazine, pull it out smoothly while maintaining control of the pouch.
- After use, return the magazine to the pouch, ensuring it is properly seated and secured by the bungee retention.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the pouch in accordance with local regulations for plastic and textile waste.
- If the pouch is damaged beyond repair, ensure that it is disposed of safely to prevent any potential hazards.
