Safety Instructions for GBRS Group Single Rifle Magazine Pouch

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the GBRS Group Single Rifle Magazine Pouch. This guide provides important safety information to ensure the safe use of this product. Please read this document carefully before using the pouch.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure the pouch is used only for its intended purpose, which is to hold and secure rifle magazines.
- Regularly inspect the pouch for any signs of wear or damage. Do not use if damaged.
- Keep the pouch out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals.
- Always follow local laws and regulations regarding the carrying and use of firearm accessories.
- Report any unsafe product incidents to the relevant authorities.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Ensure that the bungee retention system is properly adjusted for a secure fit.
- Avoid overloading the pouch beyond its designed capacity, which may compromise safety and usability.
- When drawing or reholstering magazines, do so in a controlled manner to prevent accidents.
- Always ensure that the pouch is securely attached to your belt or MOLLE system before use.
- Be aware of your surroundings while using the pouch, especially in crowded or dynamic environments.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation:

- Attach the pouch to your MOLLE webbing or belt by threading the straps through the appropriate loops.
- Ensure that the attachment is secure and that the pouch does not shift during movement.

2. Usage:

- To insert a magazine, simply slide it into the pouch, ensuring it is fully seated.
- To remove a magazine, grasp it firmly and pull straight out. If using the bungee retention, adjust the tension as needed.
- If you prefer to remove the bungee retention, simply detach it according to the provided instructions.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the pouch in accordance with local regulations.
- If the pouch is damaged beyond repair, consider recycling materials where possible.
- Do not burn the pouch as it may release harmful substances.
