Safety Instruction Guide for Remington Short Action Magazine Box

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Remington Short Action Magazine Box for BDL/CDL Remington Alpha 1. This product is designed to enhance your shooting experience by providing reliable feeding and compatibility with shortaction cartridges. As with any firearm accessory, it is important to follow safety guidelines to ensure safe use and compliance with applicable regulations.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always handle firearms and accessories with care and respect.
- Ensure that the magazine box is compatible with your specific firearm model before use.
- Store the magazine box and all firearm accessories in a secure location, out of reach of children and unauthorized users.
- Regularly inspect the magazine box for signs of wear or damage. Do not use if damaged.
- Follow all local laws and regulations regarding the use and storage of firearms and accessories.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Use only with Remington 700 Alpha 1 rifles designed for shortaction cartridges.
- Do not attempt to modify or alter the magazine box, as this may compromise safety and functionality.
- Ensure the firearm is unloaded before installing or removing the magazine box.
- Always check that the magazine box is securely in place before loading cartridges.
- Avoid exposing the magazine box to extreme temperatures or harsh chemicals that may affect its integrity.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation:

- Ensure the firearm is unloaded and pointed in a safe direction.
- Remove the existing magazine box if applicable.
- Align the Remington Short Action Magazine Box with the firearm's magazine well.
- Gently press the magazine box into place until it clicks securely.
- Verify that the magazine box is properly seated and does not move when pulled.

2. Usage:

- Load the magazine box with compatible shortaction cartridges, ensuring they are properly aligned.
- Insert the magazine box into the firearm until it locks into place.
- Conduct a function check to ensure proper feeding and cycling of cartridges.
- Store any unused cartridges in a safe and secure manner.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the magazine box in accordance with local regulations regarding metal waste and firearm accessories.
- Do not dispose of the magazine box in regular household waste.
- Consider recycling the magazine box if facilities are available in your area.
