

Military Tripod - Scout Series

The Scout Series Military Tripod is the mission-optimized evolution of our popular 2.0 platform.. Built for professionals operating in the harshest conditions. Whether you're in the field, on a vessel, or in high-pressure urban environments, this tripod delivers maximum reliability, stability, and concealment.

Key Features:

Advanced Composite Legs Constructed from an enhanced composite mix, the tripod legs are both lighter and more rigid than standard carbon fiber. This material naturally forms a camouflage-like pattern, which we've extended to help the tripod blend more effectively into outdoor environments.

Wolfskrieger LegLock System

A dedicated locking mechanism allows you to fully secure the legs, both open and closed. This eliminates unwanted movement during transport, setup, or operation, even under stress or in fast-paced environments.

Saltwater-Resistant Hardware

All key hardware components, including screws and spacers, have been upgraded for corrosion resistance, making this tripod ideal for maritime and coastal deployments.

Low-Contrast Anodized Finish

All bright blue parts from the standard version have been replaced with low-visibility grey anodized components. This reduces visual signature and eliminates reflections in tactical or low-light scenarios.

Retains the Core Strengths of the 2.0 Platform

- 165cm extended height for flexible shooting positions
- Increased ball head adjustment range
- Lever-lock Arca clamp for rapid mounting
- Integrated QD sling socket for fast carry
- Exceptional stability on all terrains

Refined Through Real-World Experience

The Scout Series Military Tripod is more than just an upgraded version of our proven 2.0 platform. It's the result of direct operational feedback from the field. What began as a German development project has grown into a truly European effort, shaped by real-world input from military professionals across the continent.

Over the past two years, we've worked closely with special units and armed forces in France, Italy, Germany, Greece, Denmark, Norway, Austria, Ukraine, Estonia, Cyprus, Slovakia, and the Czech Republic to refine every detail. Their collective experience helped turn a great product into an exceptional one, fit for deployment under the toughest conditions.

To everyone who contributed their time, testing, and trust: thank you.
