Magazine Base Pad for Arex Alpha, Zero 2 Safety Instruction Guide

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the Magazine Base Pad for Arex Alpha and Zero 2. This product is designed to enhance your magazine capacity and improve handling. To ensure safe and effective use, please read and follow the safety instructions outlined in this guide.

General Safety Guidelines

- Always ensure the product is compatible with your magazine type before installation.
- Regularly inspect the base pad for any signs of wear or damage.
- Store the product in a safe, dry place away from direct sunlight and extreme temperatures.
- Keep the product out of reach of children and vulnerable individuals.
- Report any unsafe conditions or accidents associated with this product to the appropriate authorities.
- Check for recall updates on the EU's Safety Gate platform to stay informed about product safety.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Ensure that the magazine is unloaded before attaching or detaching the base pad.
- Avoid using excessive force during installation to prevent damage.
- Do not modify the base pad or attempt to repair it yourself.
- Use the base pad only as intended; do not use it with incompatible magazines.
- Be aware of the increased magazine capacity and handle the magazine accordingly.
- If you experience any issues with the base pad, discontinue use and seek assistance.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

Installation Steps

1. Check Compatibility: Ensure that your magazine is a standard 17round CZ 75, CZ Shadow 2, or MecGar magazine.
2. Unload the Magazine: Make sure the magazine is completely unloaded.
3. Remove the Existing Base Pad: Carefully remove the existing base pad from the magazine. This may require pressing a release button or sliding the pad off.
4. Attach the New Base Pad: Align the new base pad with the magazine and press it firmly into place until you hear a click, indicating it is securely attached.
5. Check for Secure Fit: Gently pull on the base pad to ensure it is properly secured to the magazine.

Usage Guidelines

- After installation, verify that the magazine functions correctly with the new base pad.
- Practice handling the magazine to become accustomed to the increased grip and capacity.
- Always follow safe handling practices when using firearms and magazines.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the product in accordance with local regulations.
- If the product is damaged or no longer needed, do not throw it in regular household waste.
- Check with local recycling centers for proper disposal methods for plastic and metal components.
