This product is designed to enhance your magazine's performance while ensuring safety and compliance with relevant regulations. This guide provides important safety information and instructions for the proper use and maintenance of your Magazine Base Pad.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the Magazine Base Pad is compatible with your Beretta 92/98 series firearm before installation.
- Always handle firearms with care and follow all safety protocols as outlined in your firearm's manual.
- Store the Magazine Base Pad in a safe, dry place, away from children and unauthorized users.
- Regularly inspect the Magazine Base Pad for any signs of wear or damage before use.
- If you notice any defects or issues, discontinue use immediately and seek assistance.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Do not exceed the magazine capacity specified by the manufacturer when using the Magazine Base Pad.
- Always ensure that your firearm is unloaded before installing or removing the Magazine Base Pad.
- Avoid using the Magazine Base Pad in adverse conditions that may affect its performance, such as extreme temperatures or moisture.
- Be cautious when handling loaded magazines to prevent accidental discharge.
- If you are unfamiliar with firearms, seek guidance from a qualified instructor before use.

Instructions for Installation and Usage

1. Installation:

- Ensure your firearm is unloaded and the magazine is removed.
- Carefully remove the existing base pad from the magazine by following the manufacturer's instructions.
- Align the Magazine Base Pad with the magazine and press it into place until it clicks securely.
- Verify that the base pad is firmly attached and does not move.

2. Usage:

- Load the magazine according to the manufacturer's guidelines, ensuring not to exceed the maximum capacity.
- When inserting the magazine into the firearm, do so with a firm and steady motion.
- To remove the magazine, press the magazine release button and pull the magazine out smoothly.

3. Maintenance:

- Regularly clean the Magazine Base Pad with a soft cloth to remove dirt and debris.
- Avoid using harsh chemicals or solvents that may damage the material.
- Store the Magazine Base Pad in a protective case when not in use.

Disposal Instructions

- Dispose of the Magazine Base Pad in accordance with local regulations regarding plastic and metal waste.
- If the product is damaged beyond repair, ensure that it is disposed of in a manner that prevents accidental use.
